Col. Thomas Lynch Chapter Receives Charter

GEORGETOWN — The Col. Thomas Lynch Chapter received its charter Nov. 16 from SCSSAR President Dan K. Woodruff.

Nathan Kaminski, President of the Thomas Lynch Chapter, said it was an honor to receive the Charter from President Woodruff at Hopsewee Plantation at a meeting attended by 30 compatriots and guests.

Kaminski said that the Georgetown provisional chapter was started two years earlier in November 2012 at a meeting conducted at Hopsewee, home of Thomas Lynch Sr. and Jr., the Chapter's namesakes. Despite its rich Revolutionary War history, Georgetown did not have its own SAR chapter. As a provisional chapter, the charter members were given membership and activity goals by the state leadership and asked to demonstrate its viability as a chapter.

Kaminski said that the Chapter achieved those goals and participated as a provisional chapter in the life of the South Carolina SAR. The Chapter has been represented at the Board of Governors meeting in Columbia, as well as at the SAR annual meetings and at the National Congress held in Greenville in July.

In Georgetown, the Chapter members have been active presenting SAR awards at area high schools to outstanding members of the NJROTC units, sponsoring a high school student in the national Rumbaugh Oration contest, presenting war service medals to veterans of World War II, Korea and Vietnam conflicts, presenting various SAR flag certificates to patriotic organizations and individuals in the community, attending and supporting DAR sponsored events, coordinating with the Society of the Descendants of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence in placing a bronze plaque at Hopsewee honoring Thomas Lynch Sr. and Jr.'s memory, marching in the Georgetown Veterans Day parade, holding chapter meetings and executive committee meetings, inducting members, and issuing news releases for many of these activities underscoring the patriotic purposes of the SAR.

Kaminski said establishing this new chapter could not have been done without the support of the SCSSAR state leadership, particularly past state Presidents John Ramsey, Carol Crowther, current President Dan Woodruff; Dr. Redding I. "Rick" Corbett III, Vice President of Chapter Formation; Regional Vice Presidents Richard Johnson and Fred Oakes; and the Col. Lemuel Benton Chapter in Myrtle Beach, particularly Fred Oakes (President) and Bill Judd (past President).

Kaminski recognized Chapter Secretary-Treasurer, Merritt William Sturgeon, noting that his dedication, enthusiasm and energy shown over the past two years had been instrumental in getting the Chapter started.

President Woodruff installed the new Chapter officers: Nathan Kaminski, President; Bill Sturgeon, Secretary-Treasurer; Virgil Johnson, Registrar and Genealogist; and

Franklin Beattie, Chaplain. President Woodruff encouraged the Chapter members to continue their educational activities in the schools and to be visible in the community, particularly in finding and marking the graves of Revolutionary War participants, recognizing our veterans and supporting patriotic activities in the area.

From the President's Desk

Let's be about the business of the SAR

I am happy to see that several of our chapters have been marking our Patriot Graves, and a couple chapters are working on marking a historic site. This is why we exist as an organization. These are two of the best ways to educate others about the Revolutionary War and instill a more reverent attitude toward ours (and their) Patriot ancestors. Please continue these great efforts. There are so many more that remain unmarked, and we need to mark them all.

Our SCSSAR Color Guard has been busy as well this year, and I thank each color guardsman for your continued efforts. As stated by the National Society, you are the face of our organization. You have been telling our history in the schools, attending numerous grave markings, wreath-layings and commemorative events. Several of you go above and beyond, and it is appreciated.

While the SCSSAR stands at record high membership numbers and is growing, we still struggle with good leadership both at the state and chapter levels. I want to encourage each state and/or chapter officer to mentor leadership in our new members. Find a position for them in your chapter and encourage these new members.

Teach them about the history of the Revolutionary War and instill in them a more profound understanding of the men and women who created our nation. It is up to us as members of the SAR to teach this legacy. Never forget that the SAR is a historical, educational and patriotic organization. It is our responsibility as leaders in the SAR to teach them our purposes and what we are about.

Let's be about the business of the SAR!

* 12 categories must have points for a chapter to be eligible for consideration for the national President General's Cup contest.

The point totals listed above are based on information supplied to the committee through the National Office, the various chapters or direct observation. If the event is not reported, it cannot be recorded. Please be sure to contact the chairman if you have any questions or need copies of the spreadsheets that are used. The PG Cup portion cannot be calculated until the reconciliation of membership has been completed.

Please note that five chapters have qualified for the President General's Cup competition by scoring points in at least 12 of the 16 categories on the form. Another seven chapters only have to report totals in at most two categories to qualify. In each case, the presentation of a Flag Certificate is all that is needed.

The following goals have been established for each chapter for 2014:

- (1) each chapter recording 1,000 Americanism points
- (2) each chapter recording points in 12 of 16 categories and
- (3) each chapter presenting a Flag Certificate.

Blank flag certificates were provided to each chapter at both the Annual Meeting in April and the July Board of Governors Meeting. To date, the following chapters have reported the presentation of a Flag Certificate: Daniel Morgan, Gen. James Williams, Gov. Paul Hamilton, Major Gen. William Moultrie and Thomas Lynch. For the SC Society to earn the Admiral Furlong Streamer, six more chapters and the State Society need to present a Flag Certificate.

Each chapter is encouraged to select a deserving member of the community who can be awarded the certificate. The only qualifications are that (1) the Flag is flown properly and (2) it is not used in a commercial manner. Perfect candidates are local first responder locations and schools. Please be sure to supply the name of the organization awarded the certificate and date of presentation to the chairman.

234th Anniversary of Battle of Cowpens

By Mark C. Anthony
NSSAR Historic Sites
& Celebrations Chairman

The Daniel Morgan Chapter will host the 234th Anniversary Celebration of the Battle of Cowpens on the weekend of Jan. 16 and 17. The chapter is also pleased to announce that SCSSAR dual member President General Lindsey Brock will be attending this year's events.

The weekend will begin at 2:30 p.m. Friday, Jan. 16, with the annual service at the Daniel Morgan Statue in downtown Spartanburg. This ceremony includes the presentation of colors by the NSSAR Color Guard and the placement of carnations at the foot of Gen. Morgan's Statue. No pre-registration is needed for this event.

After the conclusion of this ceremony, participants will retire to the Courtyard by Marriott at 110 Mobile Drive in Spartanburg. The Courtyard is the new headquarters location for SAR events in 2015. Rooms are available for $99 plus tax, which includes a hot breakfast, by calling the Courtyard at 864-585-2400.

The NSSAR South Atlantic District will conduct its quarterly meeting at the Courtyard beginning at 4:30 p.m. All members of the SAR are invited to attend and participate in this meeting, which will be attended by members of the district from North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida as well as SAR members from around the country.

Following the meeting, the SC Society will host a reception for those in attendance. After the reception, participants will dismiss to have dinner at area restaurants.

Friday's events conclude with the SC Society sponsored Back Country

Revolutionary War Roundtable Lecture at Wofford College. Dinner is available beginning at 6:30 p.m. at a cost of $25. For those wanting to attend the lecture only, admission is $5, and the lecture begins at 7:30 p.m. The SC Society co-sponsors this lecture along with the National Park Service and will be presenting its Lecturer of the Year award at the conclusion of the lecture.

The SAR will convene at the Cowpens Battlefield on Saturday morning to officially start the day's commemorative activities. Wreaths will be registered beginning at 9 a.m. and placed around the National Monument before the wreath-laying ceremony, which begins at 10 a.m. Following this ceremony, the SAR Color Guard will lead a procession out to the Washington Light Infantry Monument for another wreath laying.

President General Lindsey Brock

The SAR's last "official" event for the day will be lunch at the Fatz Café on Peachoid Road in Gaffney.

The official announcement and registration form will be e-mailed out later in December.

State Life Membership Program Formalized

By Mark C. Anthony
State Secretary

The South Carolina Society Board of Governors approved a new State Life Membership program at its meeting in January of this year. The program is defined below:

The South Carolina Society SAR shall offer a new State Life Membership Program to allow members to pre-pay their annual dues in a single lump sum payment subject to the following conditions:

1) A compatriot must be a member in good standing or reinstating their membership at the time of application to the State Life Membership Program.

2) A compatriot must be enrolled or enrolling in the National Life Membership Program at the time of application to the State Life Membership Program.

3) The State Life Membership Program Enrollment Fee shall be equal to 50 percent of the current annual state dues amount multiplied to the sum of the compatriot's age subtracted from ninety (90). For those members under the age of forty (40), they shall pay the fee equivalent to a forty (40) year old member.

4) The enrolled compatriot shall remain responsible for paying the required annual chapter dues of his chapter. If the compatriot fails to pay the required annual chapter dues, he shall be transferred into an At Large Membership status.

5) The enrolled compatriot shall remain responsible for the payment of any special assessments of the State Society, annual or otherwise, as may be adopted from time to time. If the compatriot fails to pay the special assessment, he shall be dropped from membership and may be reinstated to membership only upon payment of the established reinstatement fee and annual dues for that year.

6) The enrolled compatriot shall not be responsible for paying any difference that may arise from the dues amount paid at the time of enrollment and any increase in annual state dues at any point in the future.

7) The State Life Membership Plan is not transferable to any other state society or any successor or heir to the enrolled compatriot. Nor shall any refund of the fee be made if the compatriot dies prior to age ninety (90).

8) Current State Life Members shall be grandfathered into the new State Life Membership Program at no additional cost or other alteration to the contract to which they were originally enrolled.

If a member wishes to apply for State Life Membership, he should complete the required application (see page 4 of this issue) and remit the required pre-paid dues amount. As an example, if a member who is currently 63 years old (this is the average age of the state membership) wishes to become a state life member, the required pre-paid dues are $270, which results from the following calculation: $90 - 63 = 27 \times $10 = \270 .

However, a key item that must be considered is that a prerequisite for enrolling in the SC Society Life Membership Program is that the compatriot must also be either a National Life Member or be enrolling in the National Life Member Program. This form is also included in this edition of The Palmetto Patriot on page 5.

A primary object should be the education of our youth in the science of government. In a republic, what species of knowledge can be equally important?

And what duty more pressing . . . than . . . communicating it to those who are to be the future guardians of the liberties of the country?

Supplemental Application Fee Increased

By Mark C. Anthony, State Secretary

As of July 23, 2014, the supplemental application fee was increased to $60 for an individual or the first family member application and to $30 for each subsequent family member application if all are submitted concurrently for the same patriot ancestor. This represents a $20 and $10 increase respectively.

As of now, all individual supplemental applications must be accompanied by a check for $70 ($60 national fee plus $10 SC state fee) made payable to "SCSSAR." If the supplemental application is part of a family group a total of $40 should be added for each additional supplemental being submitted under the same patriot.

A republic, by which I mean a government in which the scheme of representation takes place, opens a different prospect and promises the cure for which we are seeking.

Next meeting of the SC Society Board of Governors

All members of the SC Society are invited to attend the next meeting of the Board of Governors. The meeting will take place Saturday, Jan. 10, at Shandon United Methodist Church in Columbia. The church is located at 3407 Devine St. The meeting will begin at 10 a.m. preceded by donuts and coffee at 9:30 a.m.

For those who have not attended a Board of Governors meeting, the meeting includes review reports from the various state officers, state committees and chapters. Business is conducted and training sessions are provided. A catered lunch costs $10. The meeting normally adjourns between 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. so that all members can attend and return home on the same day.

At the Jan. 10 meeting, the primary business items will be hearing the report of the Nominating Committee for 2015-2016 State Officers. Also the Medals & Awards Committee will be appointed and begin its work to review worthy nominees for awards to be presented at the SCSSAR Annual State Meeting in May. This is also the meeting where any suggestions for amendments to the state constitution and bylaws are discussed. All members are eligible to attend and vote on any matter that is presented.

Besides the SAR meeting, the SCSSAR Ladies Auxiliary also meets during this time, so feel free to have your wives, daughters or significant others attend and become a part of this group that works to support the SCSSAR.

Please contact the state secretary if you have any questions about attending this meeting.

The War in the Backcountry

HISTORIC CAMDEN — Some 25 Revolutionary War enthusiasts braved the elements Nov. 1 to attend the annual Col. Joseph Kershaw Chapter-sponsored Roundtable, as part of Revolutionary War Field Days at Historic Camden Revolutionary War Site.

Historians Jack Parker, Dr. Christine Swager and Dr. Jim Picuch presented Loyalist and Patriot perspectives of "The War in the Backcountry." This Roundtable was the inaugural free public lecture in the nearly completed McCaa's Tavern.

Compatriot Bill Vartorella welcomed the crowd on behalf of the Chapter and its President, Judge Bill Funderburk.

That these united Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States, that they are absolved from all allegiance from the British crown, and that all political connection between America and the State of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved.

BEAUFORT — Lady's Island Middle School in Beaufort conducted a Veterans Appreciation Ceremony Nov. 6. Michael Keyserling President of the Gov. Paul Hamilton Chapter and a veteran, addressed students, family members and guests, thanked and honored all veterans and the school for conducting the program, which included the Parris Island Marine Corps Band. Also recognized were chapter veteran compatriots Col. Charles Stockell, Wayne Cousar, Hazen Culley and Jody Henson.

During a morning ceremony on Veterans Day, Nov. 11, Beaufort

Academy faculty and students honored chapter veterans Col. Charley Stockell, Wayne Cousar, Claude Dinkins and Jody Henson. One of the student speakers was fourth grader Olivia Dinkins, granddaughter of Compatriot Claude Dinkins.

The ceremony was arranged by fourth grade teacher Susan DiFabio and assisting faculty, which also included the Gov. Paul Hamilton Chapter presenting the school a Rembrandt Peale Porthole Portrait of Gen. George Washington, which was hung in the school's Achievement Center. Jody Henson.

Roll Call of the Departed

The South Carolina Society announces that the following compatriots have passed away since the last issue of The Palmetto Patriot.

Felix Bowden Montgomery Jr., a member of the Major Gen. William Moultrie Chapter, died June 5.

Martin David Watkins Jr., an at large member, died May 17.

Edward Green Jr., an at large member, died Sept. 18.

Wendell Howard Tiller Jr., an at large member, died Sept. 29.

But what do we mean by the American Revolution?

Do we mean the American war? The Revolution was effected before the war commenced. The Revolution was in the minds and hearts of the people; a change in their religious sentiments, of their duties and obligations. . . .

This radical change in the principles, opinions, sentiments, and affections of the people was the real American Revolution.

The Center for Advancing America's Heritage needs your support

By Mark Anthony
Past State President

The following is the progress report of the South Carolina Society's support of the Center for Advancing America's Heritage (CAAH). The current campaign will close at the end of this calendar year. The final report will appear in the next issue.

The National Headquarters moved into the renovated Fulton-Conway Building on Main Street in Louisville, Kentucky, in August of this year. This marks the completion of Phase II-A of the structural renovation of the Fulton-Conway Building. Phase I was the construction of the SAR Genealogical Library completed in 2010.

New Capital Campaign Announced

At the 2014 Fall Leadership Meeting, a new Capital Campaign was introduced to fund Phase II-B of the Headquarters renovation. This phase will focus on renovating the main floor and basement into a state of the art museum and educational facility, thus completing the original vision announced in 1999. This fundraising campaign asks compatriots to fund the completion of one square foot of the space, which is projected to cost $592. This means that funding three square feet would be a donation of $1,776. Donation forms and a letter will be sent out toward the end of the year.

Special Challenge to the State Society and Chapters

At the 2010 Annual State Meeting, the SC Society and its chapters were challenged by the Virginia Society to consider making at least a $100 donation in the name of the society or chapter to the CAAH. This donation could be made from existing chapter funds or from "passing the hat" at a chapter meeting. This is not a required donation but a challenge, and any donations made by a chapter since Oct. 1, 2009 count toward the challenge. The SC Society made a $500.00 donation.

The following chapters have responded to this challenge:

Battle of Eutaw Springs $1,000
Daniel Morgan $200.00
Cambridge $500
Gov. Paul Hamilton $150
Col. Robert Anderson $500
Col. Lemuel Benton $100
Col. Thomas Taylor $500
Dr. George Mosse $100

I can answer for but three things: a firm belief in the justice of our cause, close attention in the prosecution of it, and the strictest integrity.

George Washington:
Letter to Colonel Bassett
June 19, 1775

The following lists the compatriots who have donated to The Center for Advancing America's Heritage through Oct. 28. Thank you for your support that has brought the SAR to this exciting moment in time. A special thank you to all compatriots who increased their donations and moved up in terms of donation category.

There is something very unnatural and odious in a government a thousand leagues off.

A whole government of our own choice, managed by persons whom we love, revere, and can confide in, has charms in it for which men will fight.

The Battle of Eutaw Springs Chapter hosted the 233rd Anniversary of their namesake battle Saturday, Sept. 6. A patriotic service took place at the Historic Church of the Epiphany in Eutawville. State President Dan Woodruff brought greetings to those attending the event. Wayne Roberts, President of the Godfrey Dreher Chapter, gave an address about the battle including a story of his ancestor who fought and was wounded there. A wreath-laying ceremony followed the service at the battle monument site nearby in the Eutaw Springs community. Nine wreaths were presented by SAR, DAR and C.A.R. representatives. Most of the attendees had lunch at Sweatman's Bar-b-que for lunch. After lunch, a group traveled 22 miles to Gen. Francis Marion's tomb in Berkeley County and presented an honor wreath with musket volley by members of the SCSSAR Color Guard. [Photos by Dwaun Sellers, The Times and Democrat of Orangeburg]

Major Joseph McJunkin Grave marking

By Donny Carson
State Historian

UNION COUNTY — The Daniel Morgan Chapter of Spartanburg conducted a grave-marking ceremony for Major Joseph McJunkin Saturday, Sept. 13. The ceremony was at the McJunkin Family Cemetery in Union County at 11 a.m.

Major McJunkin was born on June 22, 1755 in Chester, Pennsylvania, and died May 31, 1846 in Union County, South Carolina. He was married to Ann Thomas, daughter of Col. John Thomas of Spartan Rifle Regiment fame. He was the last living participant to attend 50th anniversary of the Battle of Cowpens, where he spoke.

He said that he fought and bled for the freedom and liberty of this country. He hoped that future generations would be willing to step up and do the same when liberty and freedom are threatened.

Major McJunkin was a well-known Revolutionary War soldier in the SC Backcountry. His memoirs were used as a primary source of information about the war in the backcountry of South Carolina.

They were compiled by Rev. James Saye and list several campaigns and battles that Major McJunkin participated in, such as the Cherokee Campaign, Huck's Defeat, Musgrove's Mill, Hammond's Store, Cowpens, Mudlick Creek and the Siege of Ninety Six. He was wounded in the arm and captured at the Battle of Mudlick Creek.

If you read the history of the Revolutionary War in the Backcountry, you can't help but come across the Memoirs of Major McJunkin. They are mentioned in Draper's History of the Battle of Kings Mountain, Landrum's History of Spartanburg and Logan's History of Upper SC.

While I was reading an article about Major McJunkin, a mention of the Union County Historical Society was listed giving a telephone number to get permission from the land owner to see the gravesite.

I called the landowner and asked if the SAR could mark the grave. Phillip Arnold said that he would be glad to have the grave marked. The SAR presented Mr. Arnold with a Certificate of Appreciation for his willingness and aid in the grave marking. To visit the site, please call Mr. Arnold beforehand at 803-530-3817.

About 45 people attended the grave-marking, including McJunkin descendants from Asheville, North Carolina, a Boy Scout Troop, DAR, SAR from North Carolina and South Carolina and the SCSSAR Color Guard.
